6th edition of the Internationale d'art miniature

Over 200 artists present close to 400 works of miniature art from June 12 to September 5, 2011. Visitors are asked to take part in an “art rally”.

Saint-Nicolas and Levis, June 10, 2011 – The 6th edition of the Internationale d'art miniature will be held from June 12 to September 5, 2011. Three venues have been chosen to present the exhibit. The Presbytère Saint-Nicolas and the Galerie Louise-Carrier will host the international and juried exhibit. The Galerie d'art des Deux-Ponts will exhibit small works by children aged 7 to 11.

For the main juried show, artists from around the world responded to the organizing committee's call for entries. Visitors can see miniature art created by over 200 artists from 21 different countries such as Canada, the United States, Bulgaria, Poland, Australia, Greece and several others. For 2011, the jury will award a total of $5000 in prize money during the opening ceremony on June 12.

The 2009 edition drew more than 6000 visitors who came to admire a variety of sculpture and painting styles all produced in small format.

Again this year visitors will be asked to take part in a summer “art rally” at the end of which a prize will be awarded. Ballots will be available at all three locations and one question per location will need to be answered in order for the entry to be valid. Visitors will have until the end of the show to complete their ballot.

A reminder that all works are for sale and that there is no entry fee for this important exhibit.
